

Contents

|                                                                                                                                                                                   |     |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----|
| List of Figures                                                                                                                                                                   | ix  |
| List of Tables                                                                                                                                                                    | x   |
| Acknowledgments                                                                                                                                                                   | xi  |
| Introduction                                                                                                                                                                      | 1   |
| Part I French Language: Policy and Diplomacy Issues                                                                                                                               |     |
| 1 Abacha and French: From Intervention to Interlude Tunde Ajiboye                                                                                                          | 5   |
| 2 The Politics of Language Policies in Nigeria: Some Implications for the Teaching and Learning of French Bayo Isa                                                         | 19  |
| 3 Nigeria's Educational Policy on Foreign Language Acquisition: An Albatross to the Teaching and Learning of French Rasaq Aina Thomas                                      | 35  |
| 4 The French Language and Nigeria's Geopolitics in West Africa Margaret Mary Okon and Samson Fabian Nzuanke                                                                | 53  |
| 5 Re-Articulating French as a Language-Based Security Measure in Addressing National Security Challenges in Nigerian Borderlands Peter Akongfeh Agwu and Angela A. Ajimase | 69  |
| 6 The Contribution of the French Institute to Disseminating the French Language in Nigeria Rebecca Alao and Michael Akinpelu                                               | 87  |
| Part II French Language in the Nigerian Education System: Trends and Challenges                                                                                                   |     |
| 7 French in Nigerian Universities Today: Examining the Trials of Our Times Tunde Ajiboye                                                                                   | 105 |
| 8 The Future of French Language in Nigerian Education: Secondary School Students' Perspectives Samson Olusola Olatunji                                                     | 123 |
| 9 The Challenges of French Language Teaching and Learning in Nigeria Afsat Sanni-Suleiman, Ibrahim Adissa Owoo, and David Boluwatife Nehemiah                              | 135 |